

The Way To Balance LLC Receives 2014 Best of Business Award

April 2014 – Amesbury, MA: The Way To Balance LLC Center for Advanced Healing and Training has been awarded a 2014 Best of Business Award by the Small Business Community Association (SBCA).

The Way To Balance co-founders and practitioners Sue and Aaron Singleton received the award for achieving milestones in running their business, and recognized for developing a thriving firm that enhances the well-being of their clients, as well as the communities they serve.

According to the SBCA, Best of Business Award holders are valuable assets to their community and exemplify what makes small businesses great.

Aaron Singleton explained, “We are honored to be recognized, not just for growing our practice for more than 20 years, but also for following our passion and doing what we love, which is what the Small Business Community Association promotes.”

About The Way To Balance, LLC

The Way To Balance, LLC Center for Advanced Healing and Training practitioners have been empowering clients to enjoy happy, healthy, pain-free lives since 1993.

Co-Founders Aaron and Sue Singleton are internationally recognized as authors, inventors of The Energy of Life Collection of Products and Tools for Transformation and Healing, and instructors of techniques from their proprietary Energy of Life Integrative Healing Process. Among their inventions are the discovery and development of Net-neutral Ionic Technology, including the Rings of Oden, as well as BioMorphic Geometry, which creates numeric and geometric algorithms for healing and personal transformation. Learn more at www.TheWayToBalance.com.

About Small Business Community Association (SBCA)

The Small Business Community Association provides resources, services and training that supports small business owners, entrepreneurs, and anyone who needs help in starting, running or expanding a business.

SBCA seeks to advance small businesses in three key areas:

Growth: To assure a vibrant and growing small business community, SBCA seeks to introduce, engage and nurture the next generation of small business owners.

Advocacy: To support fundamental business education and action outside the small business community that will preserve and extend the future of small business.

Compassion: To support the small business community in serving others, for the betterment of our communities and world. Learn more at <http://smallbusinesscommunity.org>